THE RIGHT OF WAY.
When father drove old Dublin, He sat upon his load
And frowned on every chauffeur Who wanted half the road.

When father got his auto, His feelings seemed to switch;
He glared at every horse he met, Unless it took the ditch.
—September Lippincott's.

Yesterday was one of the groniest hot days we've had this summer. The mercury was up to 96.

Mr. E. E. Foxworthy, wife and son, Lynn, of Ft. Myers, Florida, are visiting relatives in this vicinity. Mr. Foxworthy was in Mayville yesterday and made this paper a brief call, he being an old subscriber. He is Postmaster at Ft. Myers, and a leading merchant of this thriving city of 4,000 inhabitants, and with his family is enjoying his vacation in old Kentucky.

HEMORRHAGE

Of the Lungs Caused Sudden Death of Basil W. Tolle Yesterday Afternoon

Mr. Basil W. Tolle, member of the contracting and building firm of Bailey & Tolle, suffered a hemorrhage of the lungs yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, and on his removal to his home in East Fifth street in Conklin's ambulance died only a few minutes after reaching his home.

Mr. Tolle was engaged at work in the rear of the Central Hotel in remodeling that structure when he was taken with the hemorrhage and Dr. Harover was hurriedly sent for. Mrs. Tolle arrived also, but it was quickly seen that he was fatally stricken, as his life's blood poured from his mouth in great gushes and his death resulted just after he was taken home.

Deceased was subject to these attacks and only recently had a violent hemorrhage, but he quickly recovered and was able to work.

Besides his wife, he leaves four children, Mrs. Leslie Woodworth of Lebanon, Ind., and Arthur of Indiana, and Ralph, of Cincinnati and one son Mr. Ambrose Tolle, of this city.

He was an industrious citizen, and his death under such sudden circumstances is much deplored.

Mr. Tolle was born in Maysville, was a member of St. Patrick's Church, DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., Limestone Lodge No. 36, K. of P., Knights of Columbus and the Bricklayers' Union.

His funeral will take place at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at St. Patrick's Church; burial in the Washington Cemetery.

"OLD TAYLOR"

Sued For $13,000 Worth of Whisky Barrels Never Received

Federal Judge Cochran heard pleadings on Wednesday in the case of the First National Bank of Aurora, Ind., vs. E. H. Taylor of Frankfort. John Gatin of Cincinnati, and Judge McMullen of Aurora, Ind., represented the plaintiffs and Judge E. C. O'Rear and James H. Haezelrigg of Frankfort, the defendant. The case is rather unusual in its character in that Taylor is being sued for something that he never received. Several months ago he contracted with a coöperage concern in Aurora, Ind., for $13,000 worth of barrels for which he gave his notes in advance payment. The coöperage concern sold the notes to the First National Bank of Aurora. In the meantime the coöperage company failed in business and never delivered the barrels to Taylor. The case will be completed before Judge Cochran at Frankfort on the fourth Monday of this month.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN.

The only thing the Bull Moosers forgot was to endorse the Hubble Skirt. But from what they are willing to stand for it is apparent this as only an oversight.—The Searchlight.

One of the most dangerous teachings of Mr. Roosevelt is that of having the government take more control over the affairs of the people. "The government" he speaks of consists of the office holders in power for the time being, and it is not our judgment that those in the future will be any different from those in the past, and consequently not to be so violently looked to for just administration. Our idea is to give the office holder as little power as possible. What do you think about this, Mr. Voter?—Carlisle Mercury.

TWO CONSTITUTIONS.

The Camden Post-Telegram points out two significant and important historical facts, namely:

1. The Constitution of 1787, framed by the Fathers of the Republic, distinctly recognized the policy of Protection, and under that constitution the First Congress July 4th, 1789, passed by a practically unanimous vote the first Protective Tariff law.

2. The Constitution of the Southern Confederacy, framed in 1861 by secessionists and slave-holders, expressly prohibited the imposition of Tariff duties for the purpose of encouraging and maintaining domestic industries.

Protection and patriotism went hand in hand in the one case; Free-Trade and disloyalty in the other.

WOULD AFFECT THE WHOLE COUNTRY.

We believe the wonderful prosperity of our country is due in large measure to our Protective Tariff policy. To kill an important industry which helps a part of the country is bound to affect the balance of the country. The people of Louisiana declare free sugar would ruin the cane growers and all who depend on sugar production in that state. We confess we cannot feel much sympathy for them if the Democrats should give them this bitter dose, for they have consistently stood by that party while reaping benefit from Republican policies. Beet sugar production is comparatively new and should be encouraged. A new mill is being established in Decatur county, Ind., the first in this state. Indiana needs it and others of like character as well, for every new crop we can produce is of advantage to us, not to every individual directly possibly, but it contributes to the general welfare of the state. There is no reason why we could not produce all our sugar in course of time as we doubtless will eventually. Every day.—Rockville (Ind.) Republican.

A pessimistic delegate to the Bull Moose Convention, on the way to his home in California, admitted to me in Milwaukee the other day that Taft might possibly carry Utah and Vermont, though he was not sure about Utah. He also said that Roosevelt would carry Illinois by 175,000. Evidently the Bull Moosers intend to make their short life a merry one.—The Searchlight.

KENTUCKY CAMPAIGN IN ABLE HANDS.

The Republican State Campaign Committee, as announced this week, would not be inaptly pictured were it dubbed "the subtle seven," for Chairman William D. Cochran of Maysville, himself a sagacious politician, has named as his co-workers in the Kentucky field of Taftite endeavor six crafty players of the game. The Vice Chairman is Charles L. Scholl, who was Jefferson county's High Sheriff, even after his first victory was called "no heat" and a run-over was demanded, and he is to be intrusted with the assignment of speakers.

Mr. Scholl lives in Louisville and will be more at headquarters than any other member of the Committee, with the exception of Secretary Alvis S. Bennett of Hartford, who is also Secretary of the State Central and Executive Committee and who spends all, or practically all, of his time at the Louisville offices, just removed from the Galt House to the Henry Watterson Hotel.

The Treasurer is Richard C. Stoll, a young Lexington lawyer, who, after his election as delegate from the Seventh District to the National Republican Convention, was contested by Henry T. Duncan, Jr., erstwhile Democrat and present Progressive, went to Chicago and won his fight all along the line. "Dick" is a wheel horse when it comes to digging up the "sinews of war," and since—as one Henry county Democrat of cherished memory used to put it—"them's the things as is needed mostly to win elections," he'll be mighty handy when working in conjunction with those other members who have sharp picks and who know how to handle them, namely Colonel John W. McCulloch, the Owensboro distiller; H. Green Garrett of Winchester, Third District member of the Kentucky Railroad Commission, and Robert Crooks McClure of Louisa, a lawyer who has held various appointive and elective offices from the Superintendency of the Schools of Lawrence county to member of the Legislature at the last sitting of the General Assembly, and who has had long service on campaign committees of his party. This committee foregathered with Senator William O'Connell Bradley at Louisville and adopted its slogan to the voters "let well enough alone," which, interpreted, means "do not follow the trail of the Bull Moose, or you may be lost in the quicksands."—Cromwell's Lexington Letter in Sunday's Enquirer.

Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Wood & Son's Drug Store, corrected my trouble and my good health since then is evidence of their merit. CORRESPONDENCE

EAST LIMESTONE

The weather is too hot now to stand long at the telegraph; so don't keep one waiting.

Mr. Frank Williams enjoyed a pleasant day Wednesday at the home of his friend and former school teacher, Mr. C. E. Turnipseed, who is now the proprietor of a most abundant fruit farm near Rectorville.

Mrs. Retta Garrett and Mrs. Sadie Trimble, who accompanied the remains of their mother, Mrs. James Lloyd here Monday returned to their home at Urbana, Ill., Tuesday, after a visit with their invalid grandmother, Mrs. Latham of the county.

Mr. J. R. Brodt of Howard left Monday afternoon on a business trip to Lipscomb county, in the "Lone Star State." He will return via St. Louis, where he will be met by Mrs. Brodt, and together will visit their daughter, Mrs. Will Moran, in that city. His friends wish him success and safe return.

The remains of Mrs. Lizzie Latham Lloyd, whose death occurred Saturday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Tuck Trimble, at Urbana, Ill., arrived in Maysville Monday morning and was taken direct to the Maysville Cemetery for interment, where there was in waiting a large number of relatives and friends from this vicinity, where she formerly resided and spent most of her life prior to her husband's death, which occurred about 2 years ago, since which she has spent most of her time with her two daughters in Illinois, though making frequent visits to her old Kentucky home, to which she was much attached. Returning from a visit here last February she contracted a case of pneumonia, which settled on her lungs, necessitating two operations, but unfortunately, proved of no avail, and after months of lingering suffering she passed into eternity peacefully and quietly. She was about 60 years of age and is survived by one son, Madison, and two daughters, Mrs. Retta Garrett and Mrs. Sadie Trimble, who with the latter's husband, Mr. Tuck Trimble, and little son, James Lloyd, accompanied the remains, which were gently laid to rest amidst a canopy of beautiful flowers, after brief services by Rev. W. W. Hall.

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1899.

In the good old days the heroines used to sop on her knees and pray for a protector, but nowadays she carries an automatic revolver.

Friends and relatives of Mrs. J. R. Downing of Maysville, who was the lovely Miss Petry Goff of "Edgewood," are grieved to learn that she is in poor health.—Winchester Democrat.

Campaign Publicity

Chairman Hill of the Republican National Committee announced that he will publish the sources of all campaign contributions beginning September 15th. The Democratic Committee will begin publication September 10th.

Emancipation Day

Emancipation day will be celebrated by the colored people in Yeaton's Grove, near Ripley, on Saturday, September 21st. The principal address will be made by Rev. John W. Carter of Chillicothe, Ohio. A splendid program has been arranged.

Plant Fruit Trees

At Frankfort, Commissioner of Agriculture, Newman, announced that he had determined to plant 3,000 fruit trees on farms in three Eastern Kentucky counties this fall to test the soil for orchard purposes. Rowan county is selected as one of the test fields.

Kentuckian Gets Respite

At Washington, Willie Sabina of Breathitt county, Kentucky, member of the Hospital Corps at Fort Meyer, convicted of the murder of Ada Haynes in August, 1911, will not hang next Friday. Justice Stafford granted a re-pite of 90 days to the condemned man.

Child Born With Two Heads

With two perfectly formed heads rising from a single neck and normal body, a three days old child is engaging the attentions of physicians of Josephine Hospital, in St. Louis, Mo.

The child is the daughter of Lola Williams, 18 years old, of De Soto, Mo.

Both heads are normally formed. There are two complete sets of eyes and ears, two nostrils and two mouths. Wednesday it was reported that the child was living and taking nourishment. The mother was also doing well.

While twins have been born, like the famous Siamese pair, bound together by skin and ligaments, never before, it is claimed, have two bodies been merged into one as completely as in the case of the Williams child.

CINCINNATI ROADS

Are Beginning to Feel Coming Famine in Freight Cars

Railroads operating in the Cincinnati zone are beginning to feel the coming famine of freight cars that promises to be the most serious in the history of the country, despite the fact that the railroads, commercial bodies, state commissions and shippers have been making every effort possible to avert the shortage. It is hard to get cars in Cincinnati, and every railroad is reaching out in all directions to get cars to take care of customers. Other roads show a disposition to hold their cars so far as they can without getting outside the limits of the law.

burgh is said to have decided to give allegiance to the National Administration. In the pre-convention campaign he was counted with the Roosevelt-Taft faction, but has seen his error.
He exerts a great power in Pennsylvania politics.

An Incident of a Great Battle

Maysville Bulletin.
John Scott, a Confederate soldier of this county, related that at the desperate battle of Franklin two comrades who were carrying him wounded off the field fell dead across the litter on which he lay, placed through by minie balls. No better soldier nor truer man lived than Mr. Scott.

Mayo Wants a Farm

Mt. Sterling Sentinel Democrat.

The Hon. John C. C. Mayo, the Eastern Kentucky millionaire, with Congressman C. B.
Slomp of Virginia and Judge Downs of Carrolton were in Mt. Sterling last Sunday. Mr.
Mayo is anxious for a big Bluegrass farm, and, accompanied by the Hon. J. Will Clay, they looked at many of the finest farms in Montgomery.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

St. Louis Doctor Offers Fabulous Sum to Man Able to Restore Babies to Health

St. Louis, Mo., September 21.—Following the death of his daughter, Virginia, 7 years old, from infantile paralysis, Dr. Robert Edward Wilson, in his grief, declared he would give a fortune to any physician who would save the lives of the other three children, who are all ill of the same disease at the Wilson country home, "The Oaks," Pattonville, Mo.

"I will give $10,000 to the man who can save my children," was Dr. Wilson's cry after his daughter's death. The scene in the little girl's room was touching just before her death Saturday night. Dr. Wilson was frantic, and two other physicians who had been in attendance were so affected they had to go out of the room.

Preparations for Virginia's funeral to take place in the afternoon, were being made Monday at "The Oaks."

In a swivel bed under a canopy on the lawn, Robert Edward Wilson, Jr., 4-year-old lay critically ill, with two trained nurses in constant attendance. The other nurses were caring for the baby, Grace, 2 year old, and her sister, Ellen Marie, 11.

OUR
WEEKLY SPORT LETTER

BY C. H. ZUBER.

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 5th, 1912.

The sport made by the Reds during the past ten days has revived hope of their being able to finish in the first division. For the next few days the Phillies have on a series of three double headers with the New Yorks, while the Reds have only single games scheduled. The fact that the Giants are not yet entirely out of the woods means that Manager McGraw will take no chances in the games with the Phillies, but will have in his strongest line up in every game, so that the pennant may be cinched as early as possible, thus giving his team time to recuperate before the heavy strain of the world's series. The good work done by the Reds recently was but a return of the form shown by the team in the spring. The hitting was timely, the fielding was brilliant, the base running daring, and the pitching of the highest class. At no time in their respective careers have Fromme, Benton and Sanges pitched better base ball than they are pitching now, while the assistance given them by two or three of the young pitchers has been most gratifying. By keeping up their present gait the Reds are almost certain to finish among the first four.

New players for the Reds have been arriving during the past few days.
Those now on the grounds are pitchers Doak, Gregory, Harter and Donalds, of whom Harter appears to be the class; Second Baseman Knisely and Outfielder Kyle. It is quite likely that one of the pitchers, Knisely and Kyle will be seen in next Sunday's game with the Cubs, this being the last Sabbath day game on the local lot for some weeks. Both President Herrmann and Manager O'Day are believers in the policy of trying out youngsters in the fall, when they are at their best, and for reason as many new players will be bought on to join the team as can be obtained, and all will be given an opportunity to prove their worth. It is expected that Third Baseman Almeida who has been a sensation in the Southern League this year, will join the team within a few days and make the last Eastern trip as a regular member of the team.

The Chicago's have made no gains on the New Yorks during the past week, and for that reason their prospects for finishing in first place are being reduced. While it is still possible for the Cubs to overtake the Giants, the class of work that Chance's men have been doing recently is not of a kind that will accomplish this.
The New Yorks, while not playing up to their form of earlier in the season, still are winning a sufficient number of games to maintain a respectable margin between them and their closest pursuers. The Pittsburghs may be counted out of the race entirely, and must be satisfied with third place. In the American League the Boston have materially increased their lead during the week, so that there is little or no doubt that they will be contenders in the big series next fall. Connie Mack, manager of the Athletics, has made announcement that his team no longer has a chance for the championship, which is a virtual acknowledgment that Boston has the flag cinched.

According to Jim Corbett, ex-champion of the heavyweights, Al Palzer, the Iowa giant, is the class of the "white hopes" who now are trying to improve themselves sufficiently to get on a match with Jack Johnson with some reasonable hope of winning.
Despite the fact that Johnson has retired again, there is reason to believe that he will jump out of his retirement if given the opportunity to pick up a goodly sized bundle of perfectly obtained American money.
Joe Jeannette, the colored fighter, who was touted as the strongest man possible to oppose Johnson, was so thoroughly licked on Labor Day that he passes out of the limelight as a championship possibility.

Our English friends haven't stopped bellowing yet over the victories won by the American athletes in Sweden. Ream after ream of perfectly good paper is being wasted by English writers, who were not at the games, in describing the alleged unfair methods adopted by the American entrants to assist them in bringing home the camskins. Strange that the representatives of other Nations, as well as the Swedish officials, didn't discover this trickery, isn't it? It has been brought out by these accusations and the answers to them that the English athletes have acted cavalierly toward the Americans in all of the previous Olympic games, indicating that their much-vaunted sportsmanship is easily eclipsed by their envy.

There are those who say that Ad-Wolfgang is foolish to take on Packy McFarland at 135 pounds, and weigh in at 3 o'clock, for the fight in New York the latter part of this month.
It is argued that McFarland will even go so far as to surrender his forfeit in order to weigh in above 135 pounds at the specified time, and that he will weigh 110 or more when he steps into the ring, while Wolfgang will not touch 135 pounds. While this will be a big handicap to Wolfgang, it will not deprive him of the pleasure of collecting in $22,500 sure money when the fight is over, no matter what the result nor will it deprive him of his title as lightweight champion, as Mc-Farland's weight will put him out of the lightweight class. The fight is a money-making proposition for Wolgang, and he'll get the coin.

An extra session of the Kentucky Legislature is said to be a sure thing.

J. Bruce Lemay testified in Liverpool in the American Government's inquiry into the alleged shipping trust.

The citizens in and around Sharpsburg have subscribed about $2,000 for the purpose of better improving the roads.

W. S. Fitzgerald of Boyle county, was re-elected President of the Kentucky Jailers' Association in Convention at Lexington.

A motorcycle, to be sure, might give the girl a head but some sort of handlebar to cling to, but he usually seems to prefer the bug.

The American Red Cross Society allowed another $1,000 for the purchase of food supplies for the suffering people of Nicaragua.

Government officials are surveying the entrance to Resurrection Bay, near Seward, Alaska, for a coaling station and proposed fortification.

The Senate Committee yesterday set aside October 21 and 24 on which to have Colonel Roosevelt give his testimony on campaign contributions.

Patterson of Hamilton Avenue.

DANGER PERIOD
OF WOMANS' LIFE
FROM 45 to 50

Interesting Experience of Two Women—Their Statements Worth Reading.

Asheville, N.C.—"I suffered for years with female trouble while going through the Change of Life. I tried a local physician for a couple of years without any substantial benefit. Finally after repeated suggestions to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I quit my physician and commenced using it with the happiest results. I am today practically a well woman and anxious to contribute my mite towards inducing others to try your great medicine, as I am fully persuaded that it will cure the ailments from which I suffered if given a fair chance.

"If you think this letter will contribute anything towards further introducing your medicines to afflicted women who are passing through this trying period, it is with great pleasure I consent to its publication."—Mrs. JULIA A. MOORE, 17 East St., Asheville, N.C.

The Case of Mrs. Kirilin.

Circleville, Ohio.—"I can truthfully say that I never had anything do me so much good during Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
Before I had taken one half a bottle of it I began to feel better, and I have continued taking it. My health is better than it has been for several years. If all women would take it they would escape untold pain and misery at this time of life."—Mrs. ALICE KIRILIN, 353 W.
Mill St., Circleville, Ohio.

The Change of Life is one of the most critical periods of a woman's existence.
At such times women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
